

FINANCIAL ECONOMICS CERTIFICATION OF GOOD PROGRESS AT END OF YEAR 2

Submit form to the Economics Graduate Program Manager by July 31

Name of student:

Part 1: Progress in Field Courses

Name of Field	Courses taken already (insert course #)	Courses yet to be taken
Asset Pricing
Corporate Finance
Economic History
Other courses

Student to initial these statements as appropriate:

I anticipate that I will complete the field course requirements by the end of the third year.

The two Economics sequences conform to the Department’s guidance on approved field sequences

(If applicable) Any sequence variations or any non-preapproved sequences have been approved by a field representative and the Economics Director of Graduate Studies

Students anticipating any problems in completing the field courses requirements by the end of their third year should contact the Director of Graduate Studies as soon as possible.

Part 2: Finance Comprehensive Exam

Student to initial one of these statements:

I achieved a 3.6 GPA across the four or more finance doctoral courses (FINC 585 and FINC 586)

or

I passed the comprehensive Finance exam

Part 3: Draft of a Finance Second Year Research Paper / Economics 501 Paper

Typically, this paper is presented to the Finance Department in September. In addition, the student may also present it in the Economics 501 seminar in the Fall Quarter of your third year. Financial Economics students must attend the Economics 501 seminar in Fall and Spring quarters of their third year and present a second paper in the Spring quarter.

Title:

Signed statement by one faculty evaluator:

"I affirm that the draft paper listed is likely to meet the requirements for the Finance second year research paper when presented to the department in September."

Faculty (Print Name):

Signature:

Date: